

| | |
|------------------|---|
| Job Title | Carbon Management Delivery Managers |
| Position | Full-time and part-time posts available |
| Location | Various, extensive UK travel |
| Package | Salary £40k to £45k + bonus + pension [based on full-time role] |

| |
|--|
| Education and Experience Essential <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognised degree in a relevant technical or business discipline • Minimum of ten years experience in energy and/or environmental management • Chartered Engineer status or post-graduate qualification • Membership of recognised professional body • Self-starter and able to work on own initiative with minimum supervision • Exceptional written and verbal communication skills • Computer literate, with good knowledge of MS Word, MS Excel Desirable <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Good knowledge of MS Powerpoint and MS Project • Carbon Trust accredited |
|--|

| |
|---|
| General Objectives Our client is a technically based management consultancy specialising in energy and the environment. They deliver high quality consultancy projects for a range of demanding customers, many of whom are blue-chip companies and household names. These projects include developing carbon management programmes and bespoke carbon strategies, the application of low carbon technology and advice on carbon foot printing. The work could also include advising customers on a range of carbon management schemes and programmes. The Carbon Management Delivery Managers are expected to work on a wide-range of projects either individually or as part of a small team. Key objectives of the posts will be to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take responsibility for the appointed projects, assignments or specified elements of a project or assignment as directed by the Operations Director or specific Project Manager. • Deliver work of a high quality, to often demanding timescales, which meets the agreed scope of work. • Support other members of the team and company as required to meet personal, team and company objectives. • Comply with the company's ISO 9001:2000 accredited Documented Management System (DMS). • To represent the client in a professional manner at all times. |
|---|

| |
|---|
| Specific Objectives and Job Description The Carbon Management Delivery Manager will be expected to lead small teams of Consultants and peers on larger assignments. The work will be varied, as dictated by customers' and company requirements. The work will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Carrying out Carbon Trust and bespoke carbon management strategy and feasibility surveys to meet the specified customer requirements. . • Project Management assignments, i.e. implementing carbon reduction projects on customers' sites. • Managing and/or supporting customers in managing the various carbon management schemes, e.g. EUETS, CCA and EPC. • Utility purchasing support and advice. • Identifying and qualifying sales prospects for development in to potential sales opportunities. • Identifying further business opportunities within their customer portfolio. |
|---|

